Dylan Symonds - Drums Dylan grew up in a family of musicians and educators, so it's no surprise he ended up as a music teacher. He has been playing a wide range of instruments for 20 years, and finds teaching children to play the drums most rewarding. Using a combination of beats, fills, and popular songs, combining theory and practical skills, Dylan keeps lessons interesting and goal oriented for students, allowing them to celebrate and build upon their successes. His ability to actively describe all facets of music (including playing guitar along with the students as they drum) allows for fun and engaging lessons, showing how collaborative music can be. Contact Email: dylans@ellerslie.school.nz	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• $30 for a 20 min drum lesson for individual students in years 4-8.</li> </ul>	Drum tuition takes place every Thursday during school hours, in the music room.
